

Speaker 1: I have great healthcare through work that I rely on to cover a lot of my family's needs. But, I realized that with a serious illness there can be serious extra expenses that my existing coverage doesn't cover, and that could hurt our financial plans, for today and in the future. That's why Critical Illness [Protect your family's finances.] Insurance can be so important—it can help me pay for my medical expenses without taking away money set aside for our future.

I never [The Heart Attack Covered Condition pays a benefit for the occurrence of a myocardial infarction, subject to the terms of the certificate. A myocardial infarction does not include sudden cardiac arrest.] thought I'd have a heart attack, but when I did, there were a lot of bills—and not just medical bills, either. But I got a lump-sum payment from my Critical Illness coverage and that flexibility let me spend it on the things I needed, like co-pays, deductibles, specialists and even our mortgage payments. I feel more comfortable and confident that my family's finances are more secure, thanks to MetLife Critical Illness Insurance, and you can, too. Enroll through work.
